

Steve Stewart

Assistant Professor at Georgia Southern University

Statesboro, GA, US

Steve Stewart is an expert in entrepreneurship and management.

Biography

Steve Stewart is an associate professor in the Department of Management at Georgia Southern University, where he teaches in the Entrepreneurship and Innovation program and in the M.B.A. He has worked professionally in management and sales for NCR Corporation, S.C. Johnson and Walmart. Additionally, he serves on the advisory boards of several start-up companies, and has owned home repair and services businesses. He has won awards for teaching innovation by the Center for Entrepreneurial Excellence (CFEE, George Washington University) through the United States Association for Small Business and Entrepreneurship (USASBE), the W.A. and Emma Lou Crider Award for Excellence in Teaching, and the Rutherford Award for excellence in teaching and service in the MBA. Stewart's research is in the areas of entrepreneurship, identity in organizations (individual and organizational identity, image, reputation, and organizational identification), leadership, and emotions. His research has been published in the Journal of Business Venturing Insights, the International Journal of Entrepreneurial Behavior and Research, the International Journal of Entrepreneurship and Innovation, and the International Entrepreneurship and Management Journal. Additionally, he is a frequent conference presenter at the Academy of Management, USASBE, and the Southern Management Association, and as an annual delegate at the Ocean Exchange in Savannah.

Areas of Expertise

Management, Entrepreneurship

Education

Florida Atlantic University

Ph.D. Management

Southwest Baptist Seminary

M.Div. Theology

University of Florida

B.S. Marketing

Accomplishments

Crider Excellence in Teaching Award

Georgia Southern University, Parker College of Business - 2018

Rutherford Award for Excellence in Teaching and Service in the MBA Program
2017

Crider Excellence in Teaching Award

Nominated, Georgia Southern University, Parker College of Business - 2016, 2017

Outstanding Advisor

Nominated, Georgia Southern University - 2016

Bank of America Faculty Award

2015

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.