I had the pleasure of working with Susanna at several events through our partnership with The Happy Startup School; most recently at our all day conference where Susanna led a workshop on the importance of injecting passion into startups. Susanna effortlessly directed the room in a 45 minute highly inspiring workshop, and I have no doubt that all attendees got huge value from her expertise. It's a rare find to meet somebody so passionate, enthusiastic and proactive in their role, something which Susanna excels in. I can't recommend her presentation skills & coaching sessions highly enough.
