Biography

Teresa is the Assistant Vice President of Government & Community Relations at CAA South Central Ontario (CAA SCO), Canada's largest CAA Club. She has been with CAA since 2005. Road safety for all users is a key focus of CAA Club Group's advocacy portfolio. Teresa is responsible for the overall direction and execution of the organization's advocacy strategies and programs ? including one of Canada's largest elementary school safety programs, the CAA School Safety Patrol program ? representing and raising awareness on relevant issues to over 2 million CAA Members and with policymakers in Ontario. She also coordinates public affairs strategies, particularly provincial government relations, with CAA's two other Ontario based clubs and works with CAA National on a number of public and government affairs files. Teresa's breadth and range of knowledge on infrastructure, transportation, safety, automotive and industry issues related to CAA's work has resulted in many contributions to the development and execution of sound public policy. These include input into the province's cycling strategy, being a member of the Premier's panel on the Transit Investment Strategy, tow industry reform and on the transition team of the Mayor of Toronto, to name a few. Over the last three years Teresa has released two Conference Board of Canada reports related to how much motorists contribute to the cost of infrastructure and various tools and strategies related to mitigating congestion.
