Niagara on the Lake, ON, CA

Extreme Athlete Entertainer & Speaker

Biography

From persevering family tragedy to personal triumph, appearing on Canada's Got Talent and Dragon's Den, it's hard to imagine Trevor was once a disengaged and passionless student on cruise control to no-where. Through his positive and negative experiences, Trevor has taken the strikes against him, combined with his one of a kind talent on two wheels in a high energy performance speech with a goal of engaging and motivating the youth to connect with themselves to focus on healthy futures. Perfect for classes and seminars relating to entrepreneurship, physical education or pure motivation - this highly visual 45 minute bicycle action show & speaker presentation by Trevor offers a one of a kind experience for students. Equal parts entertaining, inspiring and educational - Trevor focuses on curriculum based components, concluding with a Q&A + autograph session: safety? health & fitness? good decisions? passion & success? and Trevor's own 100% rule? About the Speaker HOP TO THE TOP From bike races to boardrooms, Trevor performs energizing bicycle action shows as the crowds look on to see one of the most visually amazing and physically demanding forms of cycling in real time. With a custom built demonstration setup, he can integrate into any event space providing a premier experience. STRIKES AGAINST HIM Growing up, he lived in a small town - was pressured into school - lost his father in 2008 to addiction and depression - chose an incredibly niche sport to specialize in - came from an average social standing - limited parental involvement - never was studious. DRAGON INSIDE But now... Trevor's senses are awake and passion for life have been ignited with a love of learning and ready for the next challenge! Life's magic is about finding opportunities and taking hold of them. Trevor's Mission = fueling his deepest desires with pulse racing adventures like: Dragon's Den to Canada's Got
