Author | Youth Motivational Speaker | Leadership Trainer

Biography

VALERIE JEANNIS is a young woman on a mission to inspire young women to pursue their dreams now. Through the pursuit of their dreams, young women stand to gain more confidence and a sense of purpose and direction, which many of today's youth lack. Valerie's commitment to see young women discover, define and own who they are, lead her to writing and publishing her new book, I AM BEAUTIFUL: The Confidence to Pursue Your Dreams, where she openly shares her journey of self-discovery and challenges readers to assess and embark on their own. It's that same passion that lead to the formation of the LEAGUE OF EXTRAORDINARY YOUNG WOMEN (theLOEYW), an emerging personal development brand for fun, fearless, purpose-driven women pursuing their dreams NOW. Unashamed to use her life as a teaching mechanism, Valerie's real talk and in your face messages inspire audiences to believe and invest in themselves and to just go for it. She has worked with those in both secular and religious settings, from universities to high schools to church congregations and community organizations. Not only is Valerie a respected youth motivational speaker, leadership trainer, and a published author, she also holds her Masters in Social Work and is a positive role model on the ability to start over and make successful choices.
