

Wei Chen

Associate Professor, College of Business at University of Mary Washington

Fredericksburg, VA, US

Dr. Chen is an expert on international business and entrepreneurship.

Biography

Wei Chen teaches business strategy, entrepreneurship, international business and business ethics. She has published and presented research on international business, institutional entrepreneurship, family business, technology transfer, team management, change management, and emerging economies. The Journal of Management History recognized one of her articles as the highly commended paper of 2013. She has also translated books in arts, worked in the ocean shipping business, and volunteered for nonprofit organizations.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning, Management Consulting, Financial Services, Professional Training and Coaching, Training and Development, Research, International Affairs

Areas of Expertise

Management History, International Business, Entrepreneurship

Education

Texas Tech University

Ph.D. Business

Texas Tech University

M.S. Business

Xiamen University, China

B.A. English

Accomplishments

Best Paper Award

Awarded by the United States Association for Small Business and Entrepreneurship and by Journal of Entrepreneurship Theory and Practice

UMW Jepson Fellowship

(2014-2015) A generous gift to the University from Alice Andrews Jepson '64 and Robert Jepson, her husband, enabled the creation of the Jepson Fellows Program. This initiative is designed to enhance the University's ability to recruit and retain the highest-quality junior faculty members and to support them in their quest for promotions and tenure.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.